

Telephone Book Recycling

Telephone Book Recycling has become even easier. Click here for visual information!

Phonebooks can now be recycled year round in Lexington and Richland Counties and the City of Columbia. Simply take them to any county drop-off facility and put them in the recycling bin for newspaper.

Residents of the City of Columbia, Forest Acres and Lexington County can also recycle their phone books in their Recycle containers curbside. Richland County will accept them in their recycle roll carts curbside.

The main objective is Recycle your Telephone books! If you have further questions please contact the Keep the Midlands Beautiful office at 803.733.1139.

Telephone Book Recycling is coordinated by Keep the Midlands Beautiful and sponsored by:

